

James Basson to speak at Australian Landscape Conference in Melbourne

CHELSEA GOLD-MEDAL-winning designer James Basson MSGD joins an international cast of speakers at the annual Australian Landscape Conference in Melbourne to discuss the theme Art and Nature: Conflict and Harmony in the Landscape. In addition, James will be leading two workshops entitled 'Creative Design Solutions – Thinking Outside the Box' and 'Challenging Spaces – Dynamic Solutions'. Delegates can also take a tour of the spectacular Dandenong Ranges National Park and the unique gardens in the region, which nestle among lush fern gullies and towering mountain ash trees. Cloudehill, rated one of the world's most beautiful gardens, Phillip Johnson's private garden and the celebrated suburban gardens by Andrew Laidlaw and Robert Boyle, form part of the tour. The conference runs from 18-22 September. To book, visit www.landscapeconference.com

James Basson will lecture in Melbourne in September